JANUARY, 1901.

To all Subscribers and Parishioners the Rector sincerely wishes a Happy New Year.

THE PAST MONTH.

The weather throughout December was damp and gloomy, with frequent fogs, a good deal of rain and no sign of winter up to the close of the year. The Advent season commenced with the month, and special services were held, as usual, on each Wednesday evening, the sermons being preached by the Rev. J. Crawford, the Rev. H. F. de Lisle, and the Rev. A. S. Dowling; the congregations being about as large as one could expect in such unfavourable weather. At Christmastide the weather cleared up and the days were bright and fine from the 23rd to the 27th, enabling people to get to Church. The band of decorators was much reduced this year, but there was quite sufficient decoration to indicate the joy and thanksgiving of Christmas, and what was done was tasteful and pleasing to the eye. The Font was decked by Miss Mallender and Miss M. Hydes; the Screen of the Lady Chapel by Mrs. G. Unwin and Miss Lamb; and the body of the Church by Miss B. Peat, Miss M. Lofts, Miss M. E. Kirkby, and Miss A. Unwin. The principal items of the musical portion of the services on Christmas Day and the following Sunday consisted of: Holy Eucharist, Barnby in E; Canticles, also Barnby, in E. Anthems: "O Zion," by Stainer; "The Bethlehem Carol," by Gounod; and the Solo and Chorus from the Messiah, "The People that walked in Darkness," and "Unto us a Child is born." Carols were sung after evensong on the Sunday after Christmas, in all of which the choir took great pains and rendered very creditably.

The last year of the Nineteenth Century was generally a prosperous one for the parish of Harthill; the Kiveton Colliery, upon which our welfare chiefly depends, worked six days a week, with hardly a break during the year, and the rate of wages increased. The health of the parish was good throughout the year; we escaped the epidemic fever and measles which prevailed in some of the neighbouring parishes, and the death rate was very low, being only $\frac{11}{100}$ per cent of the population. There were eleven deaths from natural causes during the twelve months, and there has been no funeral of a Harthill person since September 24th.

FEBRUARY, 1901.

THE PAST MONTH.

One great event of national and worldwide importance occupies all minds and touches all hearts at the moment of writing these lines. The death of our great and well-beloved Queen Victoria the Good, took place, after an illness, merciful in its brevity, on Tuesday, January 22nd, at 6.30 in the evening. The mournful news reached Hartill about 8 o'clock, but as several false reports had already been circulated, we awaited the next morning's post for confirmation of the message. Immediately upon receipt of an assurance of the sad news, the Royal Standard was hoisted at half-mast on the Church Tower, and the great bell was tolled, sixty-three minute blows being struck to correspond with the years of Her Majesty's prosperous reign. The same evening a muffled peal was rung upon the Church bells, and this was repeated twice on the following Sunday, before the morning and evening services. On that day the Pulpit and Lectern were draped with black cloth, appropriate hymns were sung, and at the conclusion of each service the Dead March, from Saul, was played on the organ, the congregation standing the while. Suitable voluntaries were also played by Mr. Harvey during the day, comprising, "Blest are the departed," Spohr; "Funeral March," Chopin; "O rest in the Lord," Mendelssohn; and "Funeral March," Beethoven.

We, who have been born and brought up under her long reign, can scarcely realize how much we owe to the far-reaching influence of our departed Sovereign for her people's good, but we may well re-echo the words of the Venerable Archbishop of Canterbury, and say with all our hearts—"Thank God for Queen Victoria."

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

On Saturday next, February 2nd, the day of the late Queen's funeral, a special Memorial Service will be held in Hartill Church, at 4 p.m. The order of the Burial Office will be used with such alterations as are necessary for the occasion.

The Sunday School Children's Christmas Tree was held on the evening of New Year's Day, when special prizes were given by the Rector to all who had obtained a fair proportion of marks for regularity and attention. The boys again beat the girls in this respect, as thirty boys won prizes: the head being Clarence Harrison, who gained the maximum number of 288, without losing a single mark; as against twenty-two girls: the head girl being Annie Hughes with 268. Four extra prizes were awarded to some little dots of

A Christmas Tree and Rummage Sale on the 3rd, in aid of the Church Restoration Fund, arranged by Mr. [redacted], with the assistance of several Church-workers. In the evening, a Negro Minstrel Concert was given by Mr. C. Peat's troupe, from Swinton, who very kindly undertook the long drive in disagreeable weather to aid the cause. Perhaps it was the adverse weather, or perhaps the posters had not been sufficiently striking, but, anyhow, the audience was not nearly so large as an excellent entertainment deserved. The gross proceeds of Sale and Concert amounted to £17 os. 2d., and the expenses were £3 10s. 2d., leaving a balance of £13 10s. to the fund.

The Choir Boys had their Christmas supper, in their own room, at the Rectory, on the 8th, the principal dish being a fine Turkey, sent by Mrs. Verelst, of Aston, who has shown our Choir lads many kindnesses. The Choir Men and Bell Ringers were entertained to supper by the Rector, at the "Beehive," on Saturday, the 12th. After supper a smoking concert was held, when some capital songs and gleees were sung, and selections were given by the String Band. The programme had not been gone through when closing time came, and the party dispersed after singing "Auld Lang Syne" in orthodox fashion.

The Evening Classes for men and lads have not been well attended this winter, for which we are very sorry; it is a great pity that more do not take advantage of the opportunities for self-improvement, so freely offered. The women have much more "go" in them than the men. The Millinery Class commenced, under Miss Burleigh, of Sheffield, on the 9th, proved twice as large as she could manage. The Class has, therefore, been divided into two, one being held at the School on Wednesday evenings, at 6 p.m., and the other, by kind permission of the Choir boys, meets in their room, at the Rectory, at 3 p.m., on the same day of the week.

CONFIRMATION.

Confirmation will be administered in the neighbourhood by the Archbishop and his Suffragans, in the course of the spring. The Rector will be glad to receive the names of candidates for preparation as soon as possible.

MARCH, 1901.

THE PAST MONTH.

The second day of February was marked throughout England and a great part of the world by Memorial Services for Queen Victoria, whose mortal remains were on that day conveyed to their last resting place at Windsor. The hour of our Service at Harthill was fixed for four in the afternoon, as being most convenient for the people and most likely to coincide with the Service at St. George's Chapel, Windsor; as indeed it did. The order of Service was as follows:—An hour before Service the Bells were rung half-muffled for about thirty minutes, then the large bell was tolled at minute intervals until nearly four o'clock, when all the bells were chimed on the muffled side until the hour struck. The Service commenced with Chopin's Funeral March, on the organ, and as the final strains died away the Choir proceeded from the vestry, singing as a processional, hymn 165, A. & M., the Processional Cross being draped with crape. Then followed the Litany, sung to the arrangement by Stainer and Goss used in St. Paul's Cathedral. After the Litany the Funeral Service commenced, the opening sentences being sung to Merbecke's music, and the Psalms to chants by Purcell and Felton. After the lesson, hymn 428, A. & M., was sung followed by the sentences "Man that is born of a woman, &c.," to Merbecke; after which came the anthem "Blest are the departed," from Spohr's "Last Judgment." The Lord's Prayer was sung to Merbecke's setting, and, after the ordinary and special Collects, hymn 401 A. & M. After the Grace, Stainer's Sevenfold Amen was used, and the Nunc Dimittis to Barnby's beautiful chant in Eb formed an appropriate Recessional. As a dismissal voluntary Mr. Harvey played Beethoven's Funeral March. Although the afternoon was damp and cold, the Church was filled to its utmost extent with a reverent and evidently sympathetic congregation. Throughout the period from the day of the Queen's death to the final interment at Frogmore, the Harthill bells were rung half-muffled, and the Royal Standard flew at half-mast on the Church Tower.

THE BOARD SCHOOLS.

The Annual Report and Statement of Grant has been received, and is decidedly satisfactory. The highest possible grant per head has been obtained in each division, viz.:—Boys, 22s. 3d.; Girls, 20s. 6d.; and Infants, 17s. per head. The Teachers in each School have therefore done all that they possibly could; but, as the grant is paid on the average attendance, there is a considerable loss to the ratepayers owing entirely and solely to those parents who have kept their children away from School on frequent half days for very trivial reasons.

THE CHURCH RESTORATION FUND.

The Dance arranged in aid of this Fund had to be postponed on account of the lamented death of the Queen. The period of public mourning ends on April 17th, the Dance will therefore take place on April 19th.

MAGAZINES FOR BIN G.

Subscribers who desire to have their Magazines bound should leave them at the Rectory before the end of March. They are requested not to pay for them until they return from the Binders. Subscribers' names should be plainly written on each set.

APRIL, 1901.

THE PAST MONTH.

March has been a very rough, cold month, and wet withal, which puts all gardening and farming operations very backward. So far, there has not been even a pinch of March dust, and those who farm strong land will especially realize the truth of the old adage, "A peck of March dust is worth a king's ransom." Influenza and kindred complaints have been very frequent in the parish all through the month, but these disorders have not proved so severe and fatal as in some neighbouring villages.

The Lenten addresses on Thursday evenings have been given by the Rev. F. J. Metcalfe, Rector of Killamarsh. Perhaps the stormy weather and the prevalent influenza have kept people away; anyhow, the congregations have been less than in previous years. Thursday, the 21st, was fine and dry, though cold, and the attendance was larger.

PARISH AND DISTRICT COUNCILS.

The Annual Parish Meeting for the election of a Parish Council and other business was held at the Board School on March 4th. Mr. S. Harrison was chosen Chairman, and the following were elected as Parish Councillors for the ensuing year:—Messrs. W. Brady, S. Covell, W. Covell, W. Downing, F. Headworth, F. P. Highfield, W. Lancashire, J. Renshaw, and S. Wainscoat. As there were no more than the above nine nominations for the nine seats, there was, of course, no contest. There were six nominations for the two seats on the District Council and Board of Guardians, but four of these withdrew before the day of election, the two remaining candidates, Messrs. F. P. Highfield and G. Stringfellow, being elected without opposition. The pressing needs of this Parish are, undoubtedly, a better water supply, better roads and light (electric light for choice). No doubt our representatives will do their best to obtain for us these necessities.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

The invitation Dance in aid of the Church Restoration Fund will take place, as already announced, on April 19th.

A Concert is to be given in aid of the Harthill Cricket Club on Tuesday, April 9th. Cricket has not been supported in Harthill of late years so well as the game deserves, and the Club funds are very low. It is to be hoped that the Concert will be well attended, and the financial result satisfactory.

MAY, 1901.

THE PAST MONTH.

The Annual Eastertide Accounts take up so much space in the May issue that we have not room for much else, and must curtail other notices.

The weather during April was for the most part decidedly wintry, with a few mid-summer days thrown in. On Good Friday and Easter Day we were fortunate in having fairly fine days, and the services, which were the same as in previous years, were, on the whole, well attended. The Meditation on our Lord's Crucifixion, composed by Sir J. Stainer, was sung after Evensong on Good Friday, in lieu of a sermon, by the Choir, who succeeded in giving a very good rendering of it, not merely as a musical performance, but as a devotional exercise. The bass parts were well sung by Messrs. F. Ward and W. H. Turner, and, in the absence of Mr. H. Featherstone through illness, the tenor part was undertaken by Mr. T. Featherstone, who is to be congratulated on sustaining the part so creditably at very short notice. The services on Easter Day were of the usual festival character, the Introit at the Choral Eucharist being Gounod's setting of the "Ave Verum," and the Anthem at Evensong, "Awake thou that sleepest," from Stainer's Oratorio, "The Daughter of Jairus."

The Annual Vestry Meeting was held on Easter Monday in the Old School, when Messrs. W. Mosey and J. Archer were re-appointed Churchwardens, with a vote of thanks for their past long services. The various Church and Charitable Accounts were presented and passed, and are published below. The following were appointed Sydesmen for the ensuing year:—Messrs. W. Covell, G. Turner, T. Smith, Thos. Laking, W. Burman, P. Glossop, Horace Unwin, and T. Laking.

A nice Concert, promoted by the Cricket Club Committee, was held in the Board School on Tuesday in Easter week, the frequent encores showing the appreciation of the audience. The net result in favour of the Club funds amounted to £3.

The Invitation Dance arranged by some of the Church workers in aid of the Restoration Fund, and postponed on account of the death of the Queen, was held at the Board School on April 19th. The party was a very pleasant one, and well managed by the M.C.'s, Dr. Scott and Mr. H. Kirkby. The financial outcome was as follows:—Total Receipts, £7 4s. 9d.; Expenses, £2 10s. 1d. Net balance paid into Bank, £4 14s. 8d.

JUNE, 1901.

THE PAST MONTH.

The month of May was abnormally dry, with a hot sun and strong cold north-east winds; and at the end of it we are very greatly in need of rain. It has been, however, a very beautiful month, for the fruit trees and all kinds of flowering trees and shrubs have been loaded with blossom.

The Annual Sale of Needlework in aid of Foreign Missions was held in the old School on Monday, May 6th. The day was dull and rain threatened, but it kept fair, and there was a steady stream of purchasers all the afternoon, though the room was at no time crowded. The various Stalls were presided over by the following ladies:—Clothing, by Mrs. Archer, Mrs. G. Unwin, Miss Lamb, and Miss Mallender; Fancy Work, by Mrs. W. and Miss Child, the Misses R. and B. Mosey, and Miss Innocent; Toys, by Miss M. E. Kirkby, and Miss M. Hydes; Refreshments, by Mrs. Trickett, Miss B. Peat, and Miss F. Jenkinson. Miss A. Glossop, the moving spirit of the enterprise, was unfortunately unable to be present owing to ill-health. The proceeds reached the satisfactory sum of £29 9s. 10d.

The only really wet day during the whole month fell, somewhat unfortunately, on Whitsun Day, when it rained quite hard just at the time when people would be setting out for the early services, and no doubt would prevent a number from coming. It was so badly wanted, however, that one could not regret it, and it laid the dust and refreshed the whole country delightfully for the ensuing week.

A Confirmation was held at Thorpe Salvin by the Archbishop of York on May 28th, when eight female candidates were presented by the Rector of Harthill, and several members of the Harthill Choir assisted in the service.

The Ofterories, unless otherwise specified, are allotted as follows:—
Sick and Poor Fund. First Sunday in the month, 10.30 a.m.
Church Expenses. Sundays, 10.30 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

JULY, 1901.

An extraordinarily dry May was followed by an equally dry month of June, a hot sun being accompanied by strong parching winds from the north-east, and the nights were frequently decidedly cold, the thermometer falling nearly to freezing point several times, whilst on Tuesday, June 18th, it registered two degrees of frost in the Rectory garden, and down at the Colliery five degrees. On the lower grounds in the neighbourhood the potatoes and other crops were greatly damaged by this frost, but in Harthill itself not much harm was done by it. On Sunday, the 16th, rain was prayed for at the Church Services; and the following Sunday we gave thanks for some refreshing rain and showers which fell between the 19th and 22nd. The last week of the month, however, was again very dry, and more rain is greatly needed.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Flower Service for the Sunday School Children will be held on Sunday, July 14th, at 2.30 p.m., when the Sermon will be preached by the Rev. C. E. Ellis, Vicar of Wales.

The Annual Excursion to Cleethorpes will take place (D.V.) on Wednesday, July 24th. The train will leave Kiveton Park at 11 a.m. Parents and friends who wish to accompany the children are requested to take their tickets of the Rector, and to let him have their names as soon as possible.

HARTHILL SHOW.

The Harthill Agricultural Show is to be held on Thursday, August 1st, when the Duke of Leeds, who is the President of the Society, intends to be present. It is to be hoped that the Committee will be favoured with a fine day this year, which is the only thing needed to ensure success.

Hartill Parish Magazine.

AUGUST, 1901.

The drought of 1901 was somewhat alleviated at the commencement of July by refreshing showers, then came 18 days more of very hot, dry weather, during which the hay crop was carried in good condition, although in these days of the decadence of agriculture hay-making is rapidly becoming a lost art. In spite of the drought, the crop, although on the light side, was still a very fair one. On Sunday morning, the 21st, the prayer for rain was again offered up in the Parish Church, and the same evening, during Divine Service, the weather broke up with a magnificent thunder storm and copious rain, which continued more or less through the week, doing immense good to corn crops and grass, and giving hope of a few turnips. The greatest heat recorded in the Rectory garden during July was 83.75 in the shade.

The Flower Service for Sunday School-children was held on July 14th, when the address was given by the Rev. C. E. Ellis, Vicar of Wales. A large number of beautiful posies were offered by the children, and were sent next morning to the Children's Hospital and the Children's Wards of the Infirmary, Sheffield, and were gratefully acknowledged by the respective Secretaries. Those bouquets which had the flower stalks wrapped in a piece of clean wet rag kept the freshest. This may be a useful hint for another year.

The Sunday School Excursion to Cleethorpes took place on Wednesday, the 24th. A short Service was held in the Church at 10 o'clock, and the party left Kiveton Park at 11. We had a better and more comfortable journey there and back than usual, but the weather rather failed us for the first time since these excursions began. It was fair for an hour and a half after arriving at Cleethorpes, then it began to rain and kept on more or less until 6 p.m., when the children and teachers had tea at the Dolphin Hotel. After that it kept fair, though dull, until almost the last stragglers had reached their homes at midnight, when down came the rain again heavily. However, it was just what we had been praying for, so one could not regret it, and in spite of showers we believe that the children enjoyed the day very well.

THE CENSUS RETURNS.

We are now able, by courtesy of the Numerator, Mr. S. Harrison, to publish the Census Returns of this Parish for 1901. For the sake of comparison, the summary of the previous Census is given.

	INHABITED HOUSES.	MALES.	FEMALES.	TOTAL.
Hartbill	94	224	214	438
Woodall	24	67	57	124
Firvale	110	322	268	590
1901 Total	228	613	539	1,152
1891	226	606	613	1,309

From the above statement it will be seen that, although there is a slight increase in the number of inhabited houses, there is a decrease of 155 in the population of the Civil Parish. The Ecclesiastical Parish of Harthill includes also the old Kiveton Park, which comprises Mr. Wright's house and cottages, the Kiveton Gardens, and Lodge Hill. Here there are 11 inhabited houses, with a population of 42. There are besides a few houses at Waleswood which are, strictly speaking, in the Ecclesiastical Area of this Parish, but as they are practically merged in the Parish of Wales for all purposes, we may leave them out of count. This makes the total population of the Ecclesiastical Parish of Harthill 1,194.

CHOIR EXCURSION.

This Excursion has been arranged for Wednesday, August 21st, the place of destination being Blackpool. Friends who wish to join the party are requested to let the Rector have their names as soon as possible.

ORGAN BLOWER.

An Organ Blower is required for the Parish Church. He should be a full-grown man of muscular body, and a calm and even frame of mind. Application may be made to the Rector or Churchwardens, who will give all information as to duties and salary.

SEPTEMBER, 1901.

THE PAST MONTH.

The Harthill Agricultural Show was held in the old cricket field, lent by Mr. W. Child, on Thursday, August 1st, under very favourable circumstances. The weather was perfect; there was a large number of exhibits of very good quality, and although there was a plethora of shows in the immediate neighbourhood at the time, the attendance was a record one, and the Society should have a comfortable balance in hand for another year. The Committee are to be congratulated on the reward of their perseverance, in spite of repeated adversity, and Mr. Harvey, the new Secretary, upon the success of his first year of office. The Duke of Leeds was able to attend the Show this year, much to the satisfaction of his tenants, and presided at the Luncheon, supported by Mr. F. W. Fison, M.P., member for the Doncaster Division, and many other local notabilities. The only disappointing feature of the Show to us was, that few of the principal prizes were secured by Harthill people. The following is a list of the Harthill prize winners, the number or letter after each name denoting the quality of the prize:—

Horses, Mr. W. Wilkinson, 3,3, 1,1; Mr. G. Jenkinson, 3; Mr. M. Kirkby, 2. Shoeing, F. Rose, 1. Cattle, Messrs. Smith Bros., 1,1,2; Mr. Cass Smith, 2,3. For the Cottager's Class all three prizes were kept in the parish, viz.: G. Whitlam, 1; J. Guest, 2; Mrs. G. Mullins, 3. Butter, Mrs. T. Drabble, 1. Eggs, Miss Child, 1. Poultry, Messrs. G. Jenkinson, 1; C. Jenkinson, 1; Cass Smith, 3,1; J. Flower, 1,3,3; G. Whitlam, 1; F. Whitlam, 2; J. Bilham, 1. Dressed Poultry, Mrs. J. Drabble, 1,1; Miss Wainscoat, 2.

The Annual Feast took place, as usual, on the 12th and following days, and passed off with a satisfactory quietness. Cricket matches were played on the Monday by the Rector's XI. versus Mr. G. Broomhead's XI., when an even and interesting game ended in favour of the Home team by 22 runs; and on the Tuesday against Ridgeway, when Harthill gained a decisive victory.

The Choir Excursion, including the Sunday School Teachers and two Bible Classes, took place on Wednesday, August 20th, and, with a score of friends who joined the party, numbered just 120. Morning Prayer was said in the Church at 5.45 a.m., and the party left Kiveton Park Station with commendable punctuality at 6.30, arriving at Blackpool after a comfortable journey at 10.30. The day was gloriously fine with just breeze enough for a sail for those who liked to venture on the briny deep, whilst on shore there were shows and entertainments galore for all who preferred to stick to mother earth. The nucleus of the party met for tea at 6 o'clock, and the return journey commenced at 7.30, and a pretty good run home landed us at Kiveton Park about midnight. Everyone seemed to have enjoyed the day, and altogether it was as successful an excursion as we have ever had.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Sewing Meetings will re-commence on Tuesday, October 8th, and will be held, as usual, at Miss A. Glossop's, who will be glad to receive two or three recruits. It is hoped that sermons will be preached for this object on December 1st, and a public meeting held on the following evening.

EVENING CLASSES.

The Hewitt Trustees intend to open the following Classes for the coming winter season.

1.—For Women. Dressmaking on Wednesday evenings. This Class will be conducted by one of the certificated Teachers of the West Riding County Council, and it is hoped that even those who are professed dressmakers may pick up some wrinkles as to latest methods, &c., at this Class. Entrance Fee, 2s.

2.—For Males. A Continuation Class in Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, and more advanced subjects as individually required, under Mr. W. R. Varney, on Mondays and Fridays at 7 p.m. This Class is free.

OCTOBER, 1901.

THE PAST MONTH.

At Evensong on Sunday, September 1st, a new Litany Desk was dedicated to the service of God in Harthill Church, and was used for the first time. In his sermon, founded upon Joel ii., 17, the Rector explained the origin of a Litany, the reason why the desk occupies the position it does in the Church, and the nature of the service. The desk was designed by Mr. W. S. Weatherly, and is made to harmonize with the Choir stalls and other furniture of the Chancel, which it now completes. The front of the desk bears the Latin legend, "Audi Domine," in old English letters, the interpretation thereof being, "Hear, O Lord." The donor wishes to remain unknown.

THE CRICKET CLUBS.

The cricket season having come to an end in September, we publish the results, as usual. The MEN'S CLUB did considerably better than in 1900, but might have done better still, for their play was very uneven, and several matches were thrown away by strange breaks-down in the batting and by missing of catches. With sufficient practice, especially in the fielding department, the team should give a good account of themselves next year.

Matches played, 18. Won, 8. Lost, 7. Drawn, 3.

The Averages of the principal players are as follows:—

The Boys' CLUB did very well, considering that all the lads who formed the main-stay of the Club last year had grown too old, and had passed on to the Men's Club. There are some very promising players amongst the boys, and the Junior Club ought to do well next year.

Matches played, 7. Won, 4. Lost, 3. The Averages are as follows:—

THE BOARD SCHOOLS.

The Annual Examination in Religion and Knowledge was held on October 30th by the Rev. H. Toovey, Diocesan Inspector. We regret that this will have been Mr. Toovey's last visit of inspection to Harthill after a period of more than twenty years. His unvarying courtesy to teachers and kindness of manner towards the children have made him ever welcome to both, and we all wish him well in his new sphere of work in Warwick. The children passed a very satisfactory examination, the Report being as follows:—

Boys. Division I.—Old Test., E.; New Test., E.; Repetition, E.; Singing, V.G.; Writing, V.F. Division II.—Old Test., V.G.; New Test., V.G.; Repetition, E.; Singing, V.G.

General Report.—“There was some good, thoughtful answering in both groups, and the work was well known by the majority of the boys. They are attentive and interested. The singing was good. The repetition was well said.”

INFANTS. Division I.—Old Test., E.; New Test., E.; Repetition, E.; Singing, V.G. Division II.—Old Test., E.; New Test., E.; Repetition, V.G.; Singing, V.G.

General Report.—“A good school, the teaching is capable and kindly, the children answer well. The repetition is natural and reverent. The Assistant in charge of the babies has taken much pains with them.”

GIRLS. Division I.—Old Test., G.; New Test., G.; Repetition, E.; Singing, E.; Writing, G. Division II.—Old Test., V.F.; New Test., G.; Repetition, E.; Singing, E.

General Report.—“The girls passed a satisfactory examination. The repetition was distinct and reverent.”

The Harvest Thanksgiving Offertories on Oct. 3rd and 6th amounted to £6 5s. 7d., of which £5 5s. was given to the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institute, and the balance of £1 0s. 7d. to Church Expenses.

THE PAST MONTH.

The month commenced with All Saints' Day, our Dedication Festival. There was a Celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 8 a.m., and Festival Evensong at 7.30, when the sermon was preached by the Rev. F. J. Metcalfe. The Festival Services were continued on the following Sunday, the sermon at Evensong being preached by the Rev. A. Poole, of Northfield. Considering the dense fogs which prevailed, there were good congregations. The Offertories on All Saints' Day, amounting to £1 2s. 3d., were given to the Church Restoration Fund; and those of Sunday, November 3rd, £2 9s. 10d., were devoted to the Foreign Missions Fund. The fog was so thick on the Sunday evening that Mr. Poole had some difficulty in finding his way to Harthill, and did not arrive until after the commencement of the Service. The musical part of the Festival Services, in which the Choir acquitted themselves very well, was as follows: The Canticles, Barnby in E; Introit, "Blessed are the departed," Spohr; Communion Service, Barnby in E; Anthems, "What are these," Stainer; and "Now we are ambassadors," with the chorus, "How lovely are the Messengers," Mendelssohn; with suitable hymns.

On Tuesday, November 5th, a missionary meeting was held in the Board School, when the address was given by the Ven. J. A. R. Swaby, Archdeacon of Honduras. The fog was thicker than ever, and seemed to have got into the lantern by which the lecture was illustrated, for, although the Rector and Messrs A. Harvey and W. H. Smith, wrestled with the instrument long and manfully, it afforded only a feeble light, but emitted a dense cloud of smut-laden smoke, and the pictures were decidedly foggy. Had the organizing secretary only let us know that a lantern was required, we could have procured one of the best lime-light instruments and a skilled manipulator, by which the interest in the address would have been greatly enhanced. In spite of the fog there was a good attendance, and the collection amounted to £1 5s. 4d., bringing up the total for the year, so far, to £33 4s. The contents of Missionary Boxes should certainly enable us to reach a final total of £36. Holders of boxes are requested to send them in by December 24th.

THE CRICKET CLUB.

A very nice Concert was given in the Board School on Monday, November 18th, in aid of this Club. The night was stormy and rather wet, but there was a good audience, who seemed to appreciate the fare provided for their entertainment as six of the items were encored; and all were well received. The Programme was as follows:—
